Discipleship: “The Unexpected Secret to Joy” by Matt Smethurst

So why is God making all-encompassing claims on your life today, even as you read this book? It is because he deserves your obedience. But it is also because you were made for obedience, like fish for water and birds for air.

This news is not always easy to swallow, but it’s good: The One who flung the stars into space and spoke galaxies into being is far too qualified to govern just one or two small provinces in your life. He loves you too much to leave you in charge of an existence you didn’t design. Just as there are physical laws like gravity built into creation, there are moral laws you were born to honor. A disobedient believer makes no more sense than a disenchanting bird trying to reach the ocean floor. In infinite wisdom and goodness, God has structured his moral universe in a particular way. We can trust him. If we refuse, we won’t just be breaking his laws; we’ll be breaking ourselves against them.

-Fifth Sunday Night Sing
 June 30-5:30pm - -Mt. Arnon Baptist church. Bring finger food.

-This Sunday night the deacons will recommend supporting an after school tutoring program during the school year for middle school and high school students. This will be in partnership with Nazarene Missionary Baptist Church. The students will meet at AF High School, Nazarene, and at our church on Tuesdays during the school year. The expenses will be covered by a grant. This is an opportunity to minister to the physical and spiritual needs of the youth in our community. We will have more information available at the business conference.

-We need one more volunteer to deliver DVD’S. Please sign up! To brighten someone’s day is a great gift!

-Thank you to all the workers in the kitchen, during VBS. You did a great job! Nettie
